

Australian American
Chamber of Commerce
2400 Augusta Dr., Suite 426
Houston, TX 77057-4922

Media Contact:
Mauren Kunz
Vollmer Public Relations
mauren@vollmerpr.com
(713) 970-2100

***CALENDAR LISTING***

---

ANNUAL ENERGY CONFERENCE TO FOCUS ON FUTURE OF AUSTRALIAN, U.S. ENDEAVORS

WHO: Australian American Chamber of Commerce (AACC) Houston

WHAT: AACC Houston 2010 Energy Conference:
The Road Ahead – Our Energy Future

Australian and American companies, regulatory officials, academics and business leaders will come together in Houston to discuss exciting breakthroughs in conventional and unconventional technologies to address global energy challenges.

Event topics will focus on common challenges and opportunities facing America and Australia in the energy sector.

WHEN: Thursday, January 28, 2010
8:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

WHERE: Hilton Post Oak
2001 Post Oak Blvd.
Houston, TX 77056

COST: Includes lunch, conference bag, wine reception and all conference sessions:
Early Bird (before December 1): $169
Online & Conference Registration: $199
To register for the conference or learn more visit <http://www.aacc-houston.org>.

MORE: Confirmed presenters include:

- Richard Court, Former Premier, Western Australia
- Michael Ware, Reporter, CNN Australia
- Clay Harris, President/CEO, GDF Suez
- Pat Brough, VP of Gas Commercialization, Global Gas Chevron
- John Tombari, VP CO2 North & South America, Schlumberger

Event topics will explore:

- Strategies for exploiting risks and uncertainties
- Changes in the regulatory investment landscape
- New and emerging technologies
- How to build a sustainable future